Elegant and modern,

The Coburg Lamps are a series that will most appeal to modern classic style enthusiasts. These fixtures not only accentuate the unique character of modern and elegant interiors but also reinforce their minimalist and contemporary design.
The combination of deep black and shiny brass, along with the shade made of Spanish alabaster, creates a unique visual effect that will undoubtedly attract attention and not allow anyone to pass by indifferently.

The Coburg series consists of pendant lamps in three different, substantial sizes and a stylish wall sconce, allowing you to illuminate not only large and spacious rooms but also hallways or staircases. Each element of this series has been carefully designed to not only serve a lighting function but also to be a unique decorative element, with alabaster as a natural stone formed over millions of years adding the perfect finishing touch.

Give your interior a new dimension with Coburg lamps, where elegance meets functionality, creating an unforgettable visual impact.
