Bring functional elegance to your interior with the PAGE W01583BR wall lamp - an adjustable wall fixture with a distinctly technical form, made of metal with a brushed brass finish. It is a task lamp designed for precise light control.

Benefits:
- Direct the light exactly where you need it thanks to the adjustable arm and movable shade
- Get the perfect lighting for reading, working or highlighting a selected detail in your interior
- Add a touch of elegance to your interior design with a brushed brass finish
- Combine functionality with timeless design inspired by mid-century and modern classic styles
- A proven solution for interiors where ergonomics and aesthetics are important

Application:
PAGE W01583BR is perfect as a wall lamp by the bed, above the desk, next to an armchair or in a reading area. Ideal for bedrooms, studies, living rooms and elegant apartments. It goes well with modern classic, mid-century modern, soft industrial and New York-style interiors.
