Bring functional elegance to your interior with the PAGE W01590NS wall lamp - an adjustable wall fixture with a technical, precise form, made of metal with a satin nickel finish. It is a task lamp designed to work with light exactly where it is needed.

Benefits:
- Precisely direct the light thanks to the adjustable arm and movable shade
- Ideal for reading, working, or lighting a specific area
- Neutral, satin nickel finish that fits into modern and minimalist interiors
- Technical, lightweight form inspired by mid-century design
- A combination of ergonomics, functionality, and timeless style

Application:
PAGE W01590NS is perfect as a wall lamp by the bed, above the desk, next to an armchair, or in a home work area. Ideal for bedrooms, offices, living rooms, and modern apartments. It fits perfectly into modern, mid-century modern, soft industrial, and contemporary interiors.
