Add elegant lightness and timeless style to your interior with the ATHENS F01767BR-WH floor lamp. The slender, simple form based on two vertical metal profiles in a brushed brass finish is topped with a classic off-white shade, giving the whole piece a calm, balanced character.

Benefits:
- Introduce soft, comfortable light into the interior thanks to the off-white fabric shade that subtly diffuses the light source
- Emphasize the elegance of the arrangement with a brushed brass finish - noble, warm, and timeless
- Gain a slender, visually light form that does not overwhelm the space, even in smaller interiors
- Combine functionality with aesthetics - the lamp works perfectly as zone and decorative lighting - Choose a universal design inspired by modern classic style and New York minimalism

Application:
The ATHENS floor lamp is perfect for the living room by the sofa or armchair, in the bedroom as atmospheric supplementary light, as well as in a study or elegant hall. Ideal for interiors in modern classic, soft glam, contemporary, New York, and elegant minimalist styles.
