Minimalistic, noble

The Modena pendant lamp is a combination of the natural beauty of Spanish alabaster with the subtle glow of brushed brass.

The alabaster shades, thanks to their unique structure, create extraordinary light effects, dispersing light throughout the room. Metal elements in the color of brushed brass give the lamp a modern character, while also introducing a warm, cozy atmosphere into the interior.

Around the sockets and bulbs, there are perforated covers in the color of the lamp - this protects against harsh light and adds charm to the lamp.
