Pendant lamp PRAGUE P04458CH

Impressive, modern.
The PRAGUE lamp is a combination of chrome-plated metal with glass in an unusual shape resembling a ball gown. The interior of the lamp and the light source located on the candlesticks are suspended on a thin tube. The bottom of the lamp is not covered, which also has its additional utility - dust particles and insects do not collect there. The whole thing is suspended on a chain that can be freely shortened by removing any number of links.
